Talbott / Lanier "Plat of Madison"

Newspaper article (1911). "A Relic of Years Ago, Picked Up by Mr. Pius Schneider, Pen Plat of Madison Over 75 Years Ago."
Mr. Pius Schneider, a wood carver, found in a pile of rubbish, a plat of Madison presented to Richard C. Talbott, by his friend James W. Lanier. Includes a story about how "Col. Dick" Talbott (Richard C.) died. At the time this article was written, this plat could be seen at the store of Messrs. N. Horuff & Sons, whose senior member knew some of the people named. Some of the names on the plat were Sheets, Hendricks, Sullivan, Captain William Ford, and Norval D. Meek. [Wonder what happened to this plat map, what a great find it would be].
